

Lindenhurst Memorial Library and Lindenhurst PTA Council present:

FACEBOOK FOR PARENTS

In this free workshop for parents of all students (K-12) in the Lindenhurst School District, you will...

Learn how to monitor, guide and protect your children from harm on Facebook.

Recognize how Facebook can be an effective tool for increasing awareness and building communication channels with your children.

Understand the digital world and the affects that it has on your children's future.

Know how to address the top six concerns that parents have with Facebook.

Learn how to stay current and informed with the never ending changes of social media.

By the time you leave this workshop, you will probably know more about Facebook than your children. You will have clearer insights about how to apply your parenting skills and family values in this new frontier.

When: Wednesday, February 29, 2012

Where: Lindenhurst High School Auditorium

Time: 5:30 p.m. - 6:30 p.m.

About the workshop leader:

Linda Fogg Phillips is the author of The Facebook Guide for Parents and co-author of Facebook for Parents: Answers to the top 25 Questions. She is currently writing a Facebook curriculum for the Online Therapy Institute. Linda gives keynote talks across the country and does hands-on workshops. She has been consulted by ABC, CBS, NBC, FOX, and CNN. Linda is the expert for a bi-weekly TV segment about Facebook.